Squirrelproof

Burnett-Seedsman, Inc.
23 Warren St., N.Y. 7, N.Y.

Dear Sirs,

Some time ago I purchased a bird feeder, to which you gave the appropriate title, "Squirrel's Defeat." I thought you might be interested in the enclosed photograph which I took of a squirrel being defeated. I might say that right after the picture was taken, he jumped on top of the feeder and did not stay there very long.

We enjoyed the feeder very much and our terrace is a popular place for all kinds of birds. We have Cardinals, Juncos, Chickadees and many others. The names of which I cannot recall, although Mrs. Sanford knows them all.

Very truly yours
W. R. BARCLAY

You Give (2) Gifts, When You Give (1)

YOU GIVE TO BIRDS, TOO, WHEN YOU GIVE FRIENDS BIRD FEEDERS FOR CHRISTMAS

No more appropriate or more enjoyable gift can one receive, than one which will help feed our wild birds, especially in Winter. At this time of the year when the ground is hard and covered with snow, very little natural food is available. But for the habit of birds eating insects, life on this planet would be impossible. Therefore, what little food we give to birds now, is but a pittance of compensation in comparison to the help we give them this Winter by giving gifts of Bird Feeders. Next Spring they will sing songs of thanks.
